Station number of document: IN 603 CASERTA A-47918

Date of document: 7 Jan 1945

Title of document: Rumania—British Opinion of Rumanians and Russians.

Document to be filed in: IR/Archives Cables

Cross reference to be filed in: [] serial

Excerpt of pertinent information:

The following are the views and opinions of a high ranking British AOC officer on the Rumanians and the Russians. Considering the position of the sub-source, it is a fair assumption that his statements reflect the prevailing British views.

1. The Rumanians tend to lie and conceal facts, while the Russians tend to grab all they can, and are guilty of a mixture of ineptitude and bad faith with resultant damage to Rumanian economy.
2. A small group of wealthy Rumanians with political pull are to blame. They put their personal interest ahead of the national good. . . In his (sub source's) opinion, General Radescu would take stern measures against this class of people if fully informed, but persons near Radescu are keeping information from him. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
